

The Save Our Schools Activists Conference:

New & Experienced Organizers Working for Public Education & Communities

JOIN THE SAVE OUR SCHOOLS COALITION

in strategizing for continued activism in our home communities and beyond at The Save Our Schools Activists Conference: New & Experienced Organizers Working for Public Education & Communities. Attend activist workshops for individuals and groups (including families and youth), so we can return to our communities as leaders, organizers, participants, artists and/or performers. This event is designed for new, emerging and seasoned activists.

Speakers and collaborators at the event are local, national and international organizers of all ages who facilitate our work in developing campaigns in hometowns via grass-roots work, social media, the arts and a deep commitment to the voice of the public being heard.
